Week 1 Term 3 Friday, 22 July 2022

Dear Long Flat school community,

Welcome back to Term 3 which is already beginning to look like quite a busy term. Some upcoming events include:

NAIDOC Celebration – Next week the students will be engaging in some fun activities whilst learning about the importance of NAIDOC.

Library Van – Next Tuesday (26th July), the library van will be here again for its first visit for the term. I look forward to seeing what lovely books the students choose to take home to read.

Dental Van – The dental van will be here at school from Wednesday 3rd August (Week 3). A permission note was sent home today to be returned to school if you would like your child to have a dental check.

Kindy Transition – It is that time of year where we welcome the preschool students to school to experience life at big school. The first session of this great program will commence on Tuesday 9th August (Week 4).

Tim Tams in your Jim Jams – The Year 6 students have organised a fundraiser which will be held on Tuesday 2nd August, as part of their efforts to raise money for their end of year present to the school. This sounds like my kind of fundraiser! Students are invited to come to school in their 'Jim Jams' and munch on some delicious 'Tim Tams'. A gold coin donation would be appreciated to go towards their fundraiser.

Book Week/Education Week – In Week 5 of this term (Monday 15th – Friday 19th August) we will be celebrating both book week and education week. On the Tuesday we will be holding a book parade which includes students coming dressed in costume. The theme for Book Week is 'Dreaming With Your Eyes Open'. The preschool children are invited to join us for this event. On the Friday (19th August), parents will be invited to join us throughout the day for open classrooms and a special Education Week assembly. There will other interesting activities scheduled in that week and more detailed information about the week's events will be shared in the upcoming weeks. However, you may want to start thinking about what book you are inspired by and the costume you'd like to wear at the parade.

Kindest Regards,

Elisha Conway
